

Smokey Mountain Special Preserves

Smokey Mountain Special is a delicious triple berry mixture of Strawberries, Raspberries, and Cherries in a preserve that is like nothing you have ever tasted. This mouth watering combination of real fruit preserves is our ultimate breakfast preserve.

Old fashioned preserves are made from large or whole pieces of fruit and are cooked to the point where the fruit is suspended. The texture of the preserves are not as smooth as jelly or jam.

Gourmet Food Products Catalog 2011

About Us:

Blue Ridge Jams has been making the finest gourmet food products in the Blue Ridge Mountains since 1961.

Located south of Asheville, North Carolina in the small country town of Hendersonville.

A taste created in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Blue Ridge Jams gourmet food products are hand made in small batches, with the freshest fruits, vegetables, pure cane sugar, and finest ingredients to ensure superior quality and excellent taste.

Blue Ridge Jams started out with a couple of great recipes, an excellent cook, and an idea. Gradually the product selections have been expanded as customers asked for more varieties, and this family owned business grew over the last 50 years to include over 200 varieties!

Our recipes have been tested over time to provide you with superior quality, high fruit content products made the old fashioned way. Each small batch is carefully hand-stirred to create a variety of wonderful flavors, and surprising combinations that will give your taste buds a treat!
